

About me

Postdoctoral researcher

Research Interests:

Aging, dementia, healthcare utilization, home maintenance, quantitative methods, medicoadministrative database

Passionate about history

I have a lovely cat

Mia

Current research

Measurement of healthcare trajectories for people living with dementia using the TorSaDE cohort, using classification methods and state sequence analysis.

Career development

PhD at the University of Sherbrooke (2020)

Registered nurse since 2011

Nurse advisor for the Canadian Red-Cross

Goal: Start a researcher career at an academic institution after my postdoc in 2022

Goals for the SPA

Expand my professional network, Learn to design longitudinal studies, Improve grant writing skills, Work in interdisciplinarity

Isabelle Dufour, RN PhD

Isabelle.dufour@mail.mcgill.ca

www.linkedin.com/in/isabelle-dufour

